ABOUT PETWORTH

Nestled in the green hills of the South Downs you will find the characterful houses and winding streets of Petworth.

The town of Petworth grew to support the large country estate of Petworth House, now run by the National Trust. Even though we are only an hour from London, Petworth still boasts a slower pace of life as well as an impressive range of cultural entertainment and independent shops.

As a small market town, the whole of Petworth is walkable and there is so much on your doorstep to enjoy. As you leave the ceremony, you can stroll down the famous Lombard Street, or down the lane to the Shimmings Valley for portraits. Where else can you take over the town and become part of the community for a day?

GETTING READY

Stay over at The Angel Inn, Ryde House or East House the night before or after the wedding and you can use the space for getting ready on the morning of your ceremony.

Ryde House in particular offers a light and airy space for hair and makeup or simply to relax over breakfast before festivities commence.

YOUR CEREMONY

Many of our couples choose to wed in the charming historic churches in Petworth. After all there are three to choose from! However, if you are looking for a civil ceremony we can offer two options.

The Stag Room at E. Street offers space for a ceremony of up to 30 guests and the best part is that as soon as the ceremony is concluded you can head straight downstairs for a glass of bubbly from the cocktail bar.

The Angel Inn is an historic coaching inn in Petworth with a large outdoor garden ideal for small ceremonies under the Pergola.
